

Lesson 1: Reading Non Fiction (p.91-93)

A. Reading Non-Fiction

Reread page 91 and find the missing information.

1.  is writing about the real world. Non-fiction gives facts about 2.

By reading non-fiction, you can find out about 3.

4.  and 5.

B. Labelling

Label the elephants using the words in the box.

calf      trunk      stomach      ear      creases and wrinkles      tail

C. Vocabulary

Complete the text about elephants using the key words from the box.

forage	munching	rumbling
matriarch	wrinkles	roam

1. Elephants like to _____ in the forests where they can eat leaves.
2. They enjoy _____ on branches. It is good for their teeth.
3. The female leader, known as the _____, is always the oldest female.
4. The males _____ around in the forests and do not live with the females.
5. Elephants have lots of _____, even when they are young.
6. When they are hungry, you can hear their stomachs _____.

D. Facts About Elephants

Look again at the important parts of the text. Make notes about the facts.

Eating Habits	Where They Live	Size
Leader Of The Herd	Young Male Elephants

E. Summary

Using your own words, write a summary of 'Elephant'.

You should include the main idea and details. Write 60-80 words.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Descriptors	Marks	Comments
Concepts	/ 3
Organization	/ 2
Use of language	/ 2
Grammar and spelling	/ 2
Creativity	/ 1
Total marks	/ 10

